Showing of obscene films in Delhi

3012. PROF. M.M. AGARWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that obscene blue films are being screened by the cinemas in Morning Show in Delhi and the concerned officials are not paying any heed;

(b) if so, the reasons for not taking effective steps by Government in this regard; and

(c) the names of the cinemas where the raids were conducted for showing blue films during 2004-05 and the number of people arrested and prosecuted for the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) to (c) As and when any instance of screening of obscene blue films by cinema halls comes to notice, appropriate action under the law is taken by the concerned authorities. During the year 2004-05 (upto 31st March) raids were conducted by Delhi Police on two cinema halls of Delhi, namely, Jagat Cinema located in Jama Masjid area and Akash Cinema located in Azadpur area in which six persons were arrested. Delhi Police have registered two cases at Police Station Special Cell under Section 7(i) (c) of the Cinematography Act, 1952. The licenses of both the
